CORRESPONDENCE.

SANDYSTON.

On Thursday last I received a pleasant call from Chester R. Smith, a former teacher in this valley. For the past year he has been in the census office at Washington and although he says he has lost in weight he is looking very good and speaks very highly of Uncle Sam as an employer.

Lester Rosenkrans, another former teacher is visiting relatives in this county. Lester for the past 5 years has taught at Leonia, Bergen Co., and is engaged for another at an annual salary of $1000. Well, that beats the rural districts of Sussex.

Culver's picnic did not materialize as the steady downpour prevented.
The rain began falling early in the morning and kept it up until toward night. Had the weather been fair a large attendance from the over-mountain towns would have been present, but the management have decided to try it over on Saturday next.

In looking over the geological survey of New Jersey I find there are 10 lakes in this county each having an area of over 100 acres: Cranberry, 151; Culver, 486; Little Pond, 100; Owassa, 299; Long Pond, 117; Losses, 137; Morris, 136; Stanhope reservoir, 839; Swartswood, 565, and Waywayanda 240 acres respectively. There are 40 ponds in Sussex and of these 30 have less than 100 acres. So the reader can see how many will be affected should the Roe bill become a law.

I notice in the Newark Sunday Call that a party of city men have purchased a tract of 4000 acres in Morris county, for the purpose of a fish and game preserve. Their intention no doubt is to have it for their own private use and the public can go elsewhere to fish and hunt, just as will be done later on in case the Roe bill fails to become a law. It is only within the past few years that the city people have been attracted by our lakes, and unless the people of this county show by their votes that they want their lakes free, they may awake to find them gobbled up by the city folk; who will allow no fishing or hunting on their lands.

On Saturday last the driver of the mail was comfortably wet inside as well as outside upon his arrival at Layton. A visit to the hotel added to his lag, and why a landlord will sell run to a mail carrier in his condition is somewhat surprising. The result was that the driver got off his road, and finally reached Milford with the wreck of his wagon. But it was not Mr. Watson driving that day.

New Jersey has a stringent election law, and yet whiskey was used as an aid in getting votes at our last town election, and no one has a word to say against such practices. I would like to see an election where neither money nor whiskey was used and for once let the "floater" boat. Bribery will get caught one of these days.

The disease attacking the hogs of Dayton Depue has subsided, thanks to the treatment of Dr. Gray of Newton.

The entertainment at Hainesville on Thursday was a success, and the receipts were $51, which is pretty good. The people was first class and the acting was very good.

Miss Sadie Hersh of Newark spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Layton, returning to Newark on Sunday afternoon.

Complaint is made that the potato crop is a very poor one, and now reports say what few there are are rotting owing to the continuous wet weather.

Hair Splits

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for thirty years. It is elegant for hair dressing and for keeping the hair from splitting at the ends."
— J. A. Gruenfelder, Grandfork, Ill.

Hair-splitting splits friendships. If the hair-splitting is done on your own head, it loses friends for you, for every hair of your head is a friend.

Ayer's Hair Vigor in advance will prevent the splitting. If the splitting has begun, it will stop it.

Why Women Should Vote.

The first reason why the women of the United States should be enfranchised is because taxation without representation is tyranny. The property right in government has been the one great principle throughout the centuries. Without that principle there would have been no revolution, and perhaps no republic.

The first requisite in government is money. When improvements are to be made the voters order the money collected. It is manifestly unjust for a certain class of people to determine the use of money without the consent of a majority of all those who contribute it.

The ballot has been extended year after year. In many of the conservative countries of Europe and in some of the states of the United States it has been extended to women. Spain, Turkey and Greece are the only countries in which women have not the right to vote at all.

There are 378 women millionaires in this country. In New York women pay taxes on property as valuable as all the property in the whole United States at the time of the revolution.

When property falls into the hands of a woman there is no protection for it. She has no vote, with other property owners, on the taxation of her property. This is manifestly wrong.

The second reason for enfranchise-ment of women is found in that great principle: "Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed." Thomas Paine, in that sentence, wrote a principle greater than he knew.
Sooner or later the American people must come up to this principle.

The police courts and penitentiaries show that if morality were the test we should enfranchise a vast majority of women, and a minority of men.

The saloon, the gambling den, and the brothel are the greatest enemies to the nation. Attack one and the others come to its rescue.

The schools to day have passed out of the hands of men. In the church when all denominations are taken together, two-thirds of the members are women. The church and the school and the philanthropist are three great powers for good in the world, and women are strong in all those branches. Therefore when our government disfranchises its women, it ignores those who take the initiative in those qualities which are generally conceded to be lacking in our government.

The strike of the steel workers is yet unsettled though there are rumors that it may soon be ended.

The session of the Sunday school of the Church of the Good Shepherd will be resumed on Sunday next at 3 o'clock.

The boilers of the steamer City of Trenton which runs between Philadelphia and Trenton exploded Wednesday when the boat was about 15 miles from the former city, killing and wounding several people.

It is quite probable that another Republican convention will be held at Harrisburg next month to form an organization to fight the regular ticket and to place independent candidates in nomination. The democratic candidate for supreme court judge may be endorsed and Farmer Crenay for state treasurer.

The Yale summer school of forestry, which ends here today, has had a successful session. Twenty-seven students were enrolled—twenty men and seven women. Of these students six were from New York state, six from Massachusetts, five from Connecticut, three from the District of Columbia, two from Pennsylvania, two from Maryland, and one each from New Hampshire, Ohio and South Carolina. It will resume next season.

Sheriff Jonathan Gombert of Carbon county has been arrested at the instance of Jas. W. Maloy, editor of the Lansford Record, dem., charged with making a bargain for his election. Maloy swears that the sheriff made a written agreement with him to the effect that if the Record would support his candidacy he would give it one-half the printing and advertising of the office.
The sheriff, it is said, has refused to keep the agreement.

Editor S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down, suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, Loss of
